Come Grow with Us!

Would you like to join a practice where

- your knowledge and experience are honored?
- self-care is prioritized?
- you can set your own schedule, either bringing your own clients or allowing the practice to build your client base?
- you can have independence and are free from overhead or billing insurance?
- you vet clients first to determine if you are the best match for their needs?
- you work with high-functioning women from across the life-span who are struggling in their own ways to seek peace within?

Peace Within: Counseling for Women, LLC , located in Lake Nona, is seeking a Florida LMHC to join our small, but mighty, team.

This position can be Telehealth exclusively, hybrid, or exclusively 2-3 days week in office. Pay is commensurate with experience. As a 1099 Independent Contractor; you will be required to pay your own federal and self-employment taxes, along with carrying your own mal-practice insurance. As a member of the practice, you will have access to and be provided a range of support services and other benefits.

If you are credentialed with insurance companies, great! If not, and you'd like to be, we can work on that knowing that it can take 60 - 90 days to accomplish this.

The ideal candidate will

- be comfortable working exclusively with women from across the lifespan.
- offer unconditional positive regard for all clients.
- have a multicultural and social justice orientation.
- infuse a working knowledge of feminist and mindfulness-based therapeutic approaches.
- keep ethical and legal considerations at the forefront of all decision-making.
- complete required documentation on time.
- be able to supervise a registered mental health counselor intern (RMHCI) if need arises.
- work to keep their own mental health and wellness a top priority.

To apply, please send a cover letter that tells us a bit about you, what attracts you to working at Peace Within: Counseling for Women, LLC and what you would bring to the practice that is unique to you and/or your niche. Attach a resume or CV and send to Dr.Michelle@PeaceWithinCounseling.com. Thank you for considering!
